
Exchange Students

A.I.S. was honored to have two 11th grade German exchange students visit on April 17th. Anne Meyers and Juergen Peterlein are from near Hanover, Germany and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lewis from Warminster, Pa. until April 26th when they go home.

They talked to the 7th grade Social Studies classes about teenagers in Germany. They also visited some 7th grade English classes and were interested in the way English is taught in the U.S. Both students speak fluent English, French, and German.

While in Virginia the students were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meadows of Pamplin. This visit was a unique experience for 7th graders at A.I.S. and they really enjoyed the discussions with the German students.
